First, I would like to thank God for this achievement. For me, this is mandatory. Without thanking HIM nothing I achieve would be meaningful no matter what anyone else thought about it. Secondly, I would like to state my appreciation of the people who made my time at Weaver more enjoyable. You know, class clowns and goof-offs. (So what if they aren't graduating!) I guess their purpose was to keep other people entertained. Lastly, I would like to say congratulations to all my graduating friends and good luck to everyone I won't see.
